

DSL Service User Agreement

The OIT DSL service connects directly to the campus network, thus making your home computer an extension of the campus network. As such, you and all users of your home computer need to be aware that all activity utilizing the OIT DSL service is governed under the University of Utah Information Resources Policy (<http://www.admin.utah.edu/ppmanual/1/1-15.html>). Please sign below and FAX or mail this agreement to the Office of Information Technology.
